Pontius Pilate had his base here, Cornelius lived and was baptized here (Acts 10), Paul was here often on his way to and from Tarsus and was held in custody here and defended himself before Felix, Festus and Agrippa prior to going to Rome (Acts 9:30-27:5), Philip also preached here (Acts 8:40). Here the Holy Spirit was first poured out on the Gentiles. Then we go to the top of Mt. Carmel where Elijah confronted the prophets of Baal and the Lord answered with fire from heaven. After viewing the Jezreel Valley (Armageddon), we will stop at Messianic congregation Ha'Carmel. We may visit at Garry & Ruth Denlinger's home in Haifa before stopping at the Abundant Hope International guest house across the bay in Akko. We will arrive at our lodging place for the next 4 days, Beit Bracha, a prayer retreat center in Migdal, and settle in for the night after a meal.

(Mark 16:13-20). We will pass through the Golan Heights marking the border with Syria. We finish the day visiting the Mount of the Beatitudes where Jesus proclaimed the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7) and return for a lovely Shabbat dinner with our friends.

Saturday, May 14: "The Spirit of the Lord is on Me"

We will enjoy an evening meal and the wonderful view of the Kinneret from Beit Bracha.

Sunday, May 15: "Who Do Men Say That I Am"

Then we will explore the nearby Nazareth Village, a recreation of the 1st century town. We will share a 1st century meal together for lunch. Then we will visit Nazareth Hospital and continue to Mt. Tabor, thought by most scholars to the Mount of Transfiguration. We then travel the Jordan valley on the way up to Jerusalem where we will see the spectacular view of the city of Jerusalem in the evening on the Mt. of Olives. We lodge at the Jerusalem House of Prayer on the Mount of Olives overlooking the city. We will join the Prayer Watch for several days with Tom Hess, a native of Lancaster County, who along with his wife Kate, directs this vital ministry of intercession.

Tuesday, May 17: Our Feet are Standing Within Your Gates, O Jerusalem

Today we examine the city of Jerusalem as it existed in the times of Jesus. We will stop at the Garden of Gethsemane first. The Temple Mount will become our focus as we attempt to visually reconstruct how the area would have looked during the times of Solomon and Jesus. We begin with the Herodian remains at the foot of temple mount (Davidson Center). Afterwards we will examine the Herodian remains uncovered at the foot of the Temple Mount. Here we will stand on the stairs that allowed access into the Temple Mount. It was these very stairs that Jesus himself would have used. We will visit the pools of Bethesda where Jesus healed a lame man and Caiphas's house and the Upper Room. We will follow Jesus' footprints along the Via Dolorosa and visit the Holy Sepulcher, the City of David and the pool of Siloam and Hezekiah's tunnel. In the evening, we will explore the Western Wall tunnel, a tunnel that winds along the old temple wall.

Monday, May 23

Early Monday morning we travel to Lod airport to fly home leaving Tel Aviv at 8:00 am. We arrive in Philadelphia at 3:30pm and are back in Lancaster by early evening.

Blessing Israel: The main purpose of our trip is to bless and discover what God is doing in Israel and to meet those who are working and praying for His purposes to be accomplished. We want to encourage and support Garry & Ruth Denlinger, Brett & Abby Boll, Miike & Alis Neibur, Avi Schwartz, David & Karen Davis and Tom & Kate Hess and the others with whom they work. We will also be blessing Yakim & Devorah Fiqueras and the congregations of believers in Arad. We are bringing them material aid and encouragement in the battle against the powers of darkness.

The Lord has restored Israel with a plan to bring all nations to acknowledge that He is the one true and living God. We will be on location praying for the Lord's will to be done on earth in Israel as it is done in heaven.
