

Dear Supporters and Friends of AMMI Ministry

Update: August 22, 2011

Radio Interview 4-5 PM EST Today 8/22/11

I was interviewed today for the Mark Daniels Show on WFIL 560 AM in Philadelphia, PA. This show will be streamed on the internet, or if your local, it can be listened to on the radio. The online link to the station is <http://www.wfil.com/> My interview is about 19 minutes long. I don't know what part of the hour show my interview will occur. Please pray it will help people learn about the ministry and our willingness to help them witness to Jewish people.

Update on Jackie

We tried different ways to help Jackie get rid of the excess fluid but the doctors and us came to the conclusion that the only way to help her heart by getting rid of excess fluid and the poor response of her kidneys was for her to begin dialysis. Jackie began dialysis in the hospital on Monday. She has a temporary access to her artery near her neck that they are using. On Thursday she had an access point surgically installed on her left arm. This will be the permanent access point for dialysis once it heals. Please pray there will be no infection and these procedures will improve her heart and excess fluid conditions. She also has problems making enough blood platelets and for now has to receive transfusions to keep the right amount of platelets in her blood. Pray the doctors can figure out what the problem is that is causing this situation.

Bible Discussion and Witnessing Opportunity

On Thursday I led the Bible discussion at the Regency Apartments. The discussion on Gen. 30, was interesting as we saw the imperfections of those God used in His plan of redemption. As we discussed the Scriptures I could see little steps among some of the regular attendees, towards faith in God. Also, after the discussion I had a wonderful opportunity to witness to a Jewish woman named Arlene. She "accidentally" showed up at our weekly discussion group of the Torah. Arlene was visiting the area and she stayed for our discussion. At the end of the discussion I asked people for prayer requests. Arlene revealed she is fundamentally unhappy, and has been this way for years. After the meeting she stayed, and we spoke for about an hour.

She has a destructive relationship with her mother and siblings, and has deep emptiness because of these broken relationships. I explained her need to be reconciled with God because of sin, and His power to heal people when they come to Him. I also explained that God can fill in our emotional needs and help us discover our purpose in life. Through faith in Jesus we can experience God's healing love. She soaked up my encouraging words like a sponge and agreed to read the Gospel of John and an article I have her on Isaiah 52:13 to 53:12. She is about the most broken and searching person I ever met. I believe her brokenness is from God in order to draw her to Himself. Please pray and ask others to pray for Arlene's salvation.
